REASON FOR TROUBLE

Senators Moody and Paddock Think the Indian Scare Is Unwarranted.

How Mr. Evans Would Prevent Outbreaks-Arms Voted by the House-Situation at Cannon Ball Ranch-Fright in Oklahoma.

AN UNNECESSARY SCARE.

Views of Senators Moody and Paddock on Indian Troubles-Congressman Evans's Plan.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, Dec. 5 .- Senators Moody and Paddock, of South Dakota and Nebraska, respectively, are inclined to beheve that there is not the least danger of an Indian outbreak growing out of the agitation over the alleged coming of the Messiah. Both of these Senators stated to the Journal correspondent to-day that the experiences of the Sioux Indians were but similar to those of the religious revivals in civilized life; that instead of the customary evidences of religion the Indians indulged in dancing, and that if there had been no agitation among the whites on account of the demonstrations there would have been no real danger of an outbreak. "It might have been wise," said Senator Moody, "to have quietly strengthened the military forces at posts around those dances when they began, but I think it was unwise to order military forces upon any Indian reservation. We have now driven the frightened Indians away from their natural and acquired sources of supplies and to desperation, but I still think if we can impress them that we intend no harm to them or their families there will be a rapid cessa-tion of anything like hostile intentions."

A very good plan for preventing Indian outbreaks in the future has been suggested by Congressman Evans, of Chattanooga, and he will likely formulate his ideas in the shape of a bill. He proposes that these Indians who are possessed of property interests shall be responsible for all damages committed by them or their families upon the property of others, and that the govern-ment shall deduct from its allotments of lands which may be made in the future, and tax those already given lands for damages perpetrated. He thinks that if the Indians, instead of the government, were made to pay for the damages suffered by the periodical outbreaks they would very soon stop them. Mr. Evans thinks that the Indian can be just as readily influenced when it comes to drawing upon their pocket-books as the white man. He says he can see no reason why Indians should not be made to bear the expenses of a frolic as well as the bear the expenses of a frolic as well as the civilized person.

Arms for Northwestern Settlers. WASHINGTON, Dec. 5 .- In the House, today, Mr. Cutcheon, of Michigan, called up the Senate joint resolution authorizing the Secretary of War to issue one thousand stands of arms to each of the States of North and South Dakota, Wyoming and Nebraska. Mr. Holman, of Indiana, while not opposing the resolution, expressed his belief that there was strong ground for ap-prehension of serious Indian troubles, but he believed that the Indians were not being well treated. He believed that the charge made that rations were not being properly supplied was well founded. He had entire confidence in the present Commissioner of Indian Affairs, but he believed that the trouble that existed was due to the neglect. if nothing more, of some persons connected with the Indian service. On motion of Mr. Carter, of Montana, the State of Montana was included in the provisions of the joint resolution, and it was then passed. Representative Hansbrough, of North Dakota, introduced a pill providing for the disarmament of the Indians and making it a punishable offense for any person to sell arms or arimunition to them.

HAVE NO GRIEVANCES.

Indians Near Canuon Ball, N. D., Satisfied with the Government's Treatment.

CANNON BALL STATION, N. D., Dec. 5 .-On Monday Captain Ketchum of the Twenty-second Infantry, who was adjutant-general for Stanley in 1873, and is well known to the Indians, held a conference at this station, Cannon Ball ranch, with all the chiefs of the Yanktonnais who could be summoned at short notice, such as Two Bears, Wolf, Necklace, Big Head, Black Tomahawk and Red Fish. They stated that they had no grievances, and with one accord said the later treaties had been complied with. They expressed grave fears lest the conduct of Sitting Bull and others would result in war, and that the Crook-Foster-Warner treaty would be abrogated thereby. They were assured that friendly Indians would not suffer, and were content. The War Department is now having made. at variaus army posts near the Sioux agencies, detailed reports by officers of rank, of all the charges of broken faith made by Indians against the government. The reports will be forwarded to the Secretary of War, and a collective statement made from them. No one in this reservation not actually in touch with Sitting Bull is chary of express-ing the firm belief that he should be arrested, and that as speedily as possible. He is surly, arrogant and recalcitrant, and is regarded as a standing menace to peace, not only by whites, but by such Indians as Gall and John Grass. Many who know the man and believe him to be a coward, think he would submit to arrest peaceably. Others think he would fight hard, if brought

SCARE IN OKLAHOMA.

Frisco Settlers Frightened by the Whooping of Nearly Four Thousand Indians. OKLAHOMA CITY, O. T., Dec. 5.—Captain Stiles, in command of the military forces at Oklahoma City, is besieged by numerous inquiries as to what steps shall be taken by the authorities to protect the settlers at Frisco, a small village fifteen miles southwest of here, against an Indian uprising. The scare amounts to a general panie. Within a mile and a half of the village nearly four thousand Indians, counting squaws and children, are encamped on the banks of the South Canadian. Many of them have on their war-paint, and whoops and yells can be heard day and night. Mrs. Davis, a school-teacher at Frisco, became alarmed for her safety, and came to this city with her child. She says the situation at Frisco is decidedly alarming. Settlers from the surrounding country are flocking into the village, and constant guard is kept day and night. The only building in Frisco capable of resisting an attack by the Indians is a one-story house, which has been fitted up as a garrison for the women and children, while the male repulation remain outside on guard. General Merritt, in command of this department, has been appealed to for protec-

Canadian Crees Coming Over.

OTTAWA, Ont., Dec. 5 .- Advices received by the government indicate that the Cree Indians are becoming disaffected and are showing a strong disposition to join the Sioux on the American side in the Messiah craze. In fact, it is said that some have already crossed over. The total Cree population scattered over the Canadian northwest numbers upward of 6,000. The government has taken steps to prevent a junction of the Canadian and American Indians. There is considerable uneasiness felt here over the news from the north west. The latest information from the Northwest confirms previous assurances of the Indian agent that the Crees are all quiet on their reservations. The rumor to the con-trary was probably occasioned by the fact that chief Pie-a-Pot has been sending out tobacco to the Wood Crees on the northern reservation, probably accompanied with invitations to pay him a visit. It was learned that messengers from Sitting Bull did cross the border, but they were accredited to a band of United States Indians of the Sioux tribes who have been quartered on Canadian territory for some time, and to whom Sitting Bull has frequently sent runpers requesting them to return to the Sionx went down to the Lower Brule agency from this city and took charge of the twelve Indians who had been arrested and imprisoned there for participating in and agitating the ghost dances, and they were brought to this city. The soldiers returned to the agency this evening after nine more.

The whole party will leave Sunday morning for Fort Snelling, where the Indians will be confined for the present. Everything is reasonably quiet at the agency at present. The Indians arrested appear to accept the situation in a philisophical spirit. It is believed that the prompt and energetic measures adopted by the agent and police at Lower Brule has discouraged the fanatics, and that no difficulty will be encountered in keeping them strictly under control.

Ready to Open Negotiations. OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 5.-A special from Pine Ridge Agency says Father Jute, the Catholic missionary, has reached the agency after a perilous journey to the camp of the hostile Indians. Father Jute was commissioned by General Brooke to open negotiations with the hostiles. The latter were induced to make a statement of their grievances and will meet General Brooke to-morrow at the point selected by Father Jute. The Indians say the census recently taken by the government officials was so grossly inadequate as to insure the starvation of the Indians.

Arms Distributed by Governor Mellette. HURON, S. D., Dec. 5.-By order of Gov. Mellette, a portion of the arms stored here were sent to-day to Gettysburg, Forest City and other points, to be distributed among the settlers along the Missouri river. A special train will reach here some time tomorrow with one company of cavalry and three of infantry. They come from Fort Leavenworth and Omaha, and will be sent to Pierre. Their movements are under the direction of General Miles. There is more interest to-night in the Indian outbreak than at any time since the Messiah craze began.

The Hostile Rosebuds.

PINE RIDGE AGENCY, S. D., Dec. 5.-The situation has not materially changed. The hostile Rosebud Indians sleep upon their arms, prepared constantly for an attack. They have three lines of signal couriers between this agency and their camp, and any movement of the troops would be known in a few moments. They have taken all they wish of the government beef herd, and burned the buildings and corrals. They are living high and are happy. They have moved to the edge of the Bad Lands. Military preparations proceed rapidly.

The Democrats and the Alliance.

Hartford Courant. The one thing quite clear at this early stage of the proceedings is, that our happy and hilarious Democratic friends are booked and hilarious Democratic friends are booked for a very sobering experience when the Alliance hands in its little bill for services rendered at this year's congressional elections. If they undertake to pay it (by going in as a party for corn-crib sub-treasuries, flooding the country with silver and paper money, etc.) they will alarm and alienate conservative Democratic voters all over the Union. If they refuse to pay it they will Union. If they refuse to pay it, they will hear from the Alliance in 1892. It is an interesting dilemma; we shall see which horn they impale themselves on.

Earthquake in Missouri. LOCKWOOD, Mo., Dec. 5.—For several weeks past explosions have been heard and their force felt in this vicinity, like heavy blasting. They have been growing louder and more violent each day. This morning two distinct shocks of earthquake were felt between 2 A. M. and 2:10 A. M. At 3 o'clock a third and very violent shock was felt. Houses were shaken, and the swaying of their dwellings brought the people out of their beds. The whole populace rushed into the streets for safety. The shock was alarmingly severe. Its force seemed to be from north to south.

Indiana's Republican Vote. San Francisco Chronicle.

Many persons have perhaps wondered why Indiana, which gave Harrison a majority in 1888, should have gone Democratic by 15,000 in 1890. The explanation is simple. In 1888 the Republican vote was 263,361; in 1890 it was only 214,302. In 1888 the two side-show tickets cast a trifle over 12,000 votes; in 1890 they polled 29,000 votes. In 1892 the Republican stay-aways will go to the polls, and those who coquetted with side issues in 1890 will return to their allegience and Indiana will wheel into line again. It should never be forgotten that the Republican vote always drops off in off

Their Duty Simple and Plain,

A great many men and newspapers are wasting much effort in giving advice to Congress. After reading some of the articles one would think that the men who represent the people were a stupid set of fellows who have no idea of the wants and needs of the country. All this advice seems like an awful waste of time. The session will be a short one. All that the Republican members ought to do is to work hard to finish and complete the good legislation commenced during the last session.

Got What They Wanted and Kicked.

The fact that the great cry of the Farm-The fact that the great cry of the Farmers' Alliance for "more money" is a pure and simple demand for better prices for farm products, which imply, of course, better prices for all the products of labor in the country, is well enough understood by every intelligent citizen and voter. And consequently the howl made the moment the silver act raised prices that the country was being ruined thereby was about the thinnest fraud that has appeared in politics since slavery days politics since slavery days.

But the same prediction was made that neither Pugh in Alabama, nor Gordon in Georgia, could be elected, but they waved the bloody shirt, evoked confederate mem-ories, and captured enough Alliance men to win. Will not Wade Hampton do the

Which Is Quite a Point,

Hugh J. Grant, Tammany's Mayor of New York, has shown symptoms of the White House fever since the election. Mr. Grant finds it necessary to stick his tongue out and sigh deeply when he attempts to write an English sentence, but from a straight Democratic stand-point his qualifications for the highest office in the gift of the people are ample. He pays as he goes.

Parnell's Amendment,

Kansas City Star. In his speech in defense of himself Mr. Parnell alludes to Mr. Gladstone as "a garrulous old man." A man who has stood fairly before the public for more than half a century cannot be set aside by a sneer of that kind. The people will continue to regard Mr. Gladstone as the "G. O. M."—the "grand old man," not the "garrulous old

INDIANA.

Youthful Fire-Bug at Greensburg Tries Burn the Town.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

GREENSBURG. Dec. 5 .- The citizens of this city are much concerned to-day over the numerous fires recently. After the burning of Johnston's barn, last night, the people were just getting to quiet rest, when the clang of the bells called out the fire department again. This time it was the barn at the residence of W. W. Bonner, which was consumed. This was about 10 and at midnight it was called out again on account the burning of Martin Zorger's barn but a little way from the last fire. Besides these, two or three incipient fires were discovered in time to be extinguished without much injury. A small colored boy name Williams was noticed early at each fire, and about the engine-house. He was arrested, and is in jail, where he has told many contradictory stories. It has developed to-day, however, that just before the first fire last night, he secured three matches, and therenight, he secured three matches, and thereafter three fires occurred, two of them in barns in which he had been previously employed.

Terre Haute Saloon War.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. TERRE HAUTE, Dec. 5 .- Argument was heard by the Mayor to-day on the five test cases of the new saloon-closing ordinance, that went into effect last night. He will render his decision to-morrow, and an appeal will be taken to the Circuit Court, and from there to the Suprema Court. The city attorney quoted the recent decision of the Supreme Court, in the case from Valparaiso, where the ordinance was held to be valid. This ordinance required the removal of all screens and obstructions to a full view of of the interior of saloons, and that business be suspended during the prohibited hours. The city attorney also held that the ordinance was not invalid on the alleged ground that it fixed a penalty already provided for by the State law. The lawyers for the defense made no reference to this latter grown , but devoted all their argument to the unconstitutionality of the or-dinance, because of the provision requir-ing that doors be locked. This, it was held, was a deprivation of private rights.

Will Go 2,000 Feet for Gas.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RICHMOND, Dec. 5.-The committee in charge of the deep-gas-well project met in the office of the Second National Bank last night, and determined where the two-thousand-teet hole is to go. It is near the Glen Miller Park, and the contractor, Charles Guthrie, who is to complete a well at Lynn, Randolph county, to-morrow night, will begin this one next week, with the expectation of finishing it the latter part of January. It is agreed that he is to get no pay until two thousand feet is reached, unless gas is found at less depth, which many expect at sixteen to eighteen hundred feet. Then, at two thousand feet, he is to get $4,000, and proceed, if the committee say so, to twenty-five hundred feet for $1,500 more. A great deal of money has been sunk in one-thousand-feet holes here, and the people were not satisfied, especially since two-thousand-feet gushers have been struck elsewhere, and they now feel disposed to go down to the chimneys of China with this down to the chimneys of China with this well or find gas.

Not Cremated, but Fatally Burned. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

CROTHERSVILLE, Dec. 5 .- For some two or three years past William C. Bradford, of Crothersville, aged seventy-nine years, and a veteran soldier who lost an arm in defense of his country, has been partially demented, but usually able to care for himself. Near 4 o'clock on the morning of the 3d inst. he arose and went to a room adjoining his bedroom, where he left his aged wife sleeping soundly. Supposedly while trying to build a fire in the stove, he set the house on fire. The building was entirely consumed, but most of its contents were saved. Mrs. Bradford was awakened by the noise and she managed, with the assistance of Mrs. Peter Davis, who happened to be in there that night, to get Mr. Bradford out of the house or he would Bradford out of the house or he would have been cremated. However, he was so badly burned that he breathed his last about 7 o'clock the same morning. Loss on the building about $500.

L. E. & W. Surgeons Meet.

MUNCIE, Dec. 5 .- To-day the members of the Tri-State Surgical Association closed an interesting annual meeting at the parlors of the Kirby House, in this city, with the election of the following officers: President, Dr. Phelps, of St. Marys, O.; vicepresident, Dr. G. W. H. Kemper, of this city; secretary. Dr. Wilson, of Plymouth; treasurer, Dr. W. B. Graham, of Noblesville. Dr. F. A. Morrison, of Indianapolis, read a paper on the injuries of the eye. Dr. Baker, of Findlay, O., read one on the fracture of the base of the skull. Another paper was read by Dr. Scott, of Kokomo, on "A Shock." All were ably discussed by the members. The association is made up of surgeons who represent the L. E. & W. of surgeons who represent the L. E. & W. railway in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. They will hold their next meeting at Bloomington, Ill., the second Thursday in next June.

Distressing Accident at a Gas Well. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

MUNCIE, Dec. 5.-At an early hour this morning Thomas Hoover, a gas-well driller, was severely burned. A rope caught fire from a burning torch from an inch naturalgas pipe in the derrick, and while the man was extinguishing it another employe ac-cidentally turned on the full force of 180 pounds pressure of gas in the pipe. The flame burst into the man's face, knecking him several feet and so badly burning him that strips of flesh fell from his face. Another employe was severely burned while cutting the burning clothing from Mr. Hoover's body. It is thought the man inhaled the flame and cannot recover. He has a family in this city.

Teachers in Council.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. GREENCASTLE, Dec. 5 .- The Teachers' Association, lately in session in this city, was addressed by Professors Tompkins, Sandison and Ogg, and at its close was unanimously voted one of the most pleasant and profitable meetings ever held in the county. They resolved in favor of a compulsory education law and against the abolition of the county superintendency of schools. The majority of the teachers of Putnam county are of the Democratic persuasion, but it is not believed that the temper of the party on educational ques-tions is different in Indiana from the open hostility that signalized its late victory in Illinois and Wisconsin.

Destructive Runaway.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WARSAW, Dec. 5 .- The team attached to John Phillips's express wagon took fright at the crack of a toy-pistol this morning, and ran down Buffalo street, severely, if not fatally, injuring a little child, and, dashing into the dray-stand, demoralized two drays, and put to fright the teams attached thereto. The six wild horses ran savagely up and down the streets and sidewalks, tearing away signs, making havoc of the plateglass windows in two store-rooms and injuring several pedestrians. Fortunately, no one was killed.

Incendiary Tramps.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. GOSHEN, Dec. 5 .- Early this morning the general store in East Goshen owned by Hon. A. F. Wilden, of this city, was destroyed by fire. Loss, about $3,500; insurance, $2,000. Shortly after the fire a gang of transps were discovered in a school-house near by, and Sheriff Crull and Marshal Trump, assisted by several men of the neighborhood, succeeded in capturing them and placing them in jail to await their trial for the incendiarisms. Their names are Walter Snyder, who was released on Sunday from four months in jail: Thomas Anderson, John Mains, Ed Williams, William Mackentire and James Mackentire.

Swallowed Poison.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FORT WAYNE, Dec. 5 .- When Jacob Hess, an employe of the Nickle-plate, returned to his home this evening he found the house locked. He gained an entrance through a transom, and in the kitchen found his wife sitting in a chair in a com-atose condition. She had returned home from a trip down street, and undoubtedly hadlimmediately taken poison, as she still had on her hat and street wraps. Her death is hourly expected. No cause is known.

Passenger Train Derailed.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAPORTE, Dec. 5 .- As the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern limited vestibule westbound passenger train was entering the yards here, this morning, the shift-bar of a switch over which the train was passing broke and caused the derailing of all the coaches. Luckily, no one was injured. The passengers were transferred to an ac-commodation train and taken on their way, while a wrecking train got things cleared up this afternoon.

Think They Have Found Gold.

COLUMBUS, Dec. 5 .- At Sampson Hill, eighteen miles southwest of here, a yellow metal has been discovered within the past few days in timbered gulches owned by an old German named Gore. An analysis is said to have proven the metal to be gold. The tract is difficult of access and has been little frequented. Large quantities of the metal are thought to exist in the vicinity, and people in the surrounding country are greatly excited.

Killed by the Joliet Explosion. JOLIET, Dec. 5.-Nine persons were killed in a blast-furnace accident here yesterday, and six dangerously injured. The officers at the mills cannot explain why the supporting pillars gave way. They say that this is the first accident of the kind from such a cause known in the history of blast-mills. This blast-furnace was one of the largest. Its capacity was 200 tons daily. Its height was eighty feet and its width eighteen feet. Several men have been recently killed at the furnace by explosions caused by leaks. A coroner's jury is investigating the affair.

IMPROVEMENT IN DENTAL Patented Sept. 24, 1889, and Feb. 25, 1890.

This improvement dispenses with the large suction plate in common use for partial dentures. It will also supplant "bridge work" in large measure, which latter is difficult to fit and involves the destruction of valuable teeth. The plates are very small, about one quarter to one eighth the usual size. Being constructed on true mechanical principles, they fit the mouth with perfect accuracy. This system applies to all cases having one or more natural teeth remaining on either jaw. The patent granted February 25, 1890, is for an improvement in metallic plates. The best material for this purpose is gold. Other materials have a special utility, but gold is to be preferred. With this method a perfect fitting gold plate can be made which has never been accomplished before, owing to the warpage that invariably occurs in soldering the clasps and teeth to the plate.
